

R14-74
RESOLUTION OF THE BOROUGH OF MERCHANTVILLE,
COUNTY OF CAMDEN AND STATE OF NEW JERSEY
MAINTENANCE COMMITMENT FOR THE 2014 NJDOT
TRANSPORTATION ALTERNATIVE PROGRAM GRANT APPLICATION

WHEREAS, the Borough of Merchantville and Township of Pennsauken are preparing a joint-municipality grant application to the State of New Jersey Department of Transportation Alternative Program (TAP) for improvements to the Merchantville multi-use pedestrian and bicycle path, and extension of the path into Pennsauken Township, memorialized in the SAGE system as application TA-2014-Pennsauken-Merchantville Multi-Use T-00111;

WHEREAS, a multi-use bicycle and pedestrian facility that crosses municipal boundaries will be a low-impact, environmentally friendly mode of transportation that will enhance the transportation experience for residents and visitors, bolster the local economy, and improve the overall quality of life for the residents;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Merchantville is committed to maintaining proposed improvements along the path that will be installed in the Borough of Merchantville, pursuant to the Transportation Alternative Program throughout their useful life.
